CREDENTIALS

Seating at Market Square Arena's press tables is restricted to accredited working media representatives. Non working media will be seated in reserved seat areas when seats are available. Single game credentials must be requested no later than noon the day before the game (Friday noon for Sunday games). Request may be made in writing to David Paitson, Public Relations, Indiana Pacers, 920 Circle Tower Building, Indianapolis, Indiana 46204 or by calling the Pacer Public Relations office at 317-632-3865. Credentials are good for admittance to the Arena, press room and home and visiting locker rooms. Those regularly assigned to the Pacers will be seated at courtside. Those requesting single game credentials will be seated on a first come first serve basis. Prearranged credentials may be picked up before the game at the press gate. MEDIA MEMBERS HOLDING PACERS' SEASON PASSES SHOULD NOTIFY THE PUBLIC RELATIONS OFFICE IF PLANNING TO COVER A GAME IN ORDER TO RESERVE SEATING.

PRESS GATE — The press gate is located on the third level, northwest entrance of MSA (300 East Market Street). Only media members who hold 1984-85 Indiana Pacers or NBA press credentials will be admitted through this entrance.

MEDIA ROOM

Located on the Northeast corner of MSA's floor level (3rd floor). The room opens 1-1/2 hours before each game and again at halftime and following the game. We must limit press room usage to members of the media only when valid Pacers press passes are presented. It is impossible to accommodate family members, friends, guests or others. The professional intent of the room is to provide a meeting and working place for the media and game personnel. Any abuse of the press room and/or press privileges will cause forfeiture of your press pass.

SERVICES

Complete statistics along with pre-game press notes, line-ups, information regarding injuries, and other pertinent facts will be furnished by the Pacers Public Relations Department. Play-by-play and halftime box scores will be delivered directly to the press table and complete final boxes, fourth quarter play-by-plays and coaches' quotes will be available immediately following the game in the media room. TELECOPIER — The Indiana Pacers will provide one telecopier for use in the media room. TELESPORT service also is available through George Montgomery (317-897-8063 or 897-6482).

PRESS ROW

Your cooperation is asked in maintaining a working atmosphere at press row. Smoking is prohibited on press row.

PHOTOGRAPHERS

Only those photographers on assignment will be allowed space on the floor and their photo credentials must be worn prominently at all times. Credentials are good for admittance to the arena, press room and the designated photographer areas on the MSA floor. Only television photographers doing post game interviews will have access to lockerroom areas. Photographers are allowed only within the designated photographers areas at each end of the court. Spaces are allotted on a first come first serve basis. Special instructions for photographers can be found on the photo pass.

LOCKERROOMS

Both the Pacers and visitor's lockerroom will be open up to 45 minutes before game time and 10 minutes after the game.

LIVE INTERVIEWS

Requests for live interviews from Market Square Arena with Pacer players or coaches or opponents players and coaches must be made by 5:00 p.m. the day before the game.

RADIO AND TELEVISION

Electronic media representing the visiting team will be assigned to the northeast end of the press table, near the visiting bench. If notified in advance, the Pacers Public Relations Department will assist in arranging pregame and post-game interviews.

COURTESY: YOUR cooperation is asked in maintaining a working atmosphere in the media room, at courtside and in lockerroom areas. During post game interviews those newspapers with morning deadlines and TV stations doing live spots should be given preference in obtaining players and coaches.

FRONT OFFICE / PROMOTIONS, INC.

MELVIN SIMON
Owner, Indiana Pacers

Born in the Bronx, Melvin Simon first became interested in shopping centers while attending the City College of New York, where he graduated with a degree in accounting. He proceeded to earn a master's degree in business and real estate before he entered the Army and was assigned to its financial center at Fort Benjamin Harrison, near Indianapolis, Indiana.

After being discharged from the Army, Simon went to work as a leasing agent for an Indianapolis real estate company involved with some of the first shopping center developments in central Indiana. In June, 1960, he formed his own company, Melvin Simon & Associates, Inc., which as Chairman of the Board he has guided to the position as one of the country's most successful and respected shopping center development firms.

Today, at age 57, Melvin Simon serves on several shopping center industry committees, including the Board of Trustees of the International Council of Shopping Centers and the Editorial Advisory Board of Shopping Center World Magazine. His charitable affiliations include serving on the Board of Directors of United Cerebral Palsy and as a former Vice President of the Muscular Dystrophy Association.

HERBERT SIMON
Owner, Indiana Pacers

A native of the Bronx, New York and a graduate of New York City College, Herbert Simon came to Indianapolis in the fall of 1959. After working for 6 months for the Albert Frankel Co., an Indianapolis-based real estate firm, Herb joined his brother Melvin in founding Melvin Simon & Associates.

Since its modest beginning in 1960, Melvin Simon & Associates has grown to become the nation's second largest owner/manager of shopping centers, with over 40 million square feet of space in some 120 malls across half of the country.

In a reorganization effort in 1973, Herb was named President, a position he continues to occupy, devoting full-time to developing enclosed regional malls, renovating existing malls and community plazas and playing a key role in revitalization of a number of downtown areas. The firm is also actively involved in several mixed-use developments and has introduced the innovative concept of the Consumer Mall to the midwest.

As President of a company with the high community profile maintained by Melvin Simon & Associates, Herb finds himself personally involved in a number of community activities. He serves on the Board of Directors of Butler University and the "500" Festival Associates and is a strong patron of the arts, lending support to many of the city's fine cultural institutions.

ROBERT J. SALYERS, President

Promoted to club President prior to the 1983-84 season by co-owner Herb Simon, Salyers, 36, had served the two previous seasons as General Manager for the National Basketball Association club. Salyers was instrumental in locating purchasers for the troubled franchise following an April 5, 1983 announcement which stated that there was a high probability that the Pacers would not be playing in Indianapolis in 1983-84. Under his direction, Indiana has become regarded as an up and coming franchise and was awarded the 1985 NBA All-Star game. Salyers was first attracted to the Pacers through his law practice (Salyers, Eiteljorg and Cracraft), serving as the club's general counsel for two years prior to assuming his dual responsibilities in April 1981. Prior to his law studies the Purdue University graduate earned a bachelor's degree in animal science in 1968. He is also a U.S. Army veteran, having spent 13 months in Vietnam. Salyers and his wife of 15 years, the former Beverly Jernas, have two children, Kyle 10, and Krisha, 8.

ROGER BLAEMIRE, Vice President/Marketing & Broadcasting

Roger Blaemire begins his second season with the Indiana Pacers as Vice President/Marketing & Broadcasting. As Vice President of Broadcasting, Blaemire is responsible for putting together the Pacers radio and television networks.

Blaemire, a native of St. Joseph, Illinois, attended the University of Illinois in Champaign-Urbana, after which he worked for CBS radio and television and Metromedia in Chicago. Blaemire left Metromedia to become a partner in National Sports Marketing, where he produced, sold and syndicated sports shows for television. Blaemire sold his interest in National Sports Marketing to become president of MT television in Los Angeles. MT television held the syndication rights to the Richard Simmons and the Mike Douglas shows and various other television properties. Blaemire sold his interest in MT in 1982 and was affiliated with a San Diego television station prior to joining the Pacers.

Roger was recently married. He and his wife Maggie reside in Indianapolis.

RAY COMPTON, Vice President of Operations

Ray Compton enters his third season with the Indiana Pacers as the club's Vice President of Operations.

Compton, 34, joined the Pacers in November, 1982 as Assistant General Manager. He coordinates the ticket marketing, public relations and promotion areas for the Pacers.

Compton, a native of Homer, Ill., graduated from the University of Illinois in 1972 with a bachelor's degree in journalism. He worked for newspapers in Champaign, Ill., Quincy, Ill., and Little Rock, Ark., before joining the Indianapolis News in 1976. He worked for the News for six years, covering Big Ten football and basketball.

Compton, single, enjoys tennis and resides in Indianapolis.

DAVE ALCORTA
Broadcast Sales Manager

Dave Alcorta is beginning his second season as Broadcast Sales Manager for the Indiana Pacers. His responsibilities include securing radio and television stations for the Pacers network, setting up formats and broadcast sales.

Prior to joining the Pacers, Alcorta was Account Executive and Sales Manager for two radio stations and one television station in San Diego. His experience includes producing and directing the San Diego Charger and San Diego State University football and basketball networks.

A native of Boston, Dave and his wife Linda have two children, son Nick and daughter Ellen Kathleen

MARK ANDREW
Director of Ticket Sales

Mark Andrew Zwartynski returns for his second season as Director of Ticket Sales for the Indiana Pacers. Mark directs the Pacers' nine person sales force in all ticket sales, including season tickets, mini-season and groups.

A 1974 graduate of St. Josephs College (IN), Zwartynski has extensive marketing experience in the entertainment field. A musician himself, Mark wrote, produced and directed a rock opera "Midnight Ride to Resurrection", which toured the college circuit in 1973-74. Originally from Perth Amboy, New Jersey, Mark is a big fan of that region's favorite son, performer, Bruce Springsteen.

Mark and his wife, the former Maritta Wagner reside in Zionsville, Indiana.

KATHY JORDAN
Assistant Director of Promotions

Indianapolis native Kathy Jordan returns for her second season as the Indiana Pacers' Assistant Director of Promotions. Kathy is involved in creating the Pacers' game entertainment packages and also assists in numerous Pacer community promotions as well.

Jordan had worked as Office Manager for Indiana Black Expo and as a teacher in the Indianapolis Public Schools prior to joining the Pacers.

A 1974 graduate of Indianapolis North Central High School and Purdue University (1978), Kathy has a Masters in Education from Indiana University-Purdue University in Indianapolis. Kathy is expecting her first child in February.

DOUG McKEE
Controller

Doug McKee, the veteran of the Indiana Pacers front office, begins his ninth year as the Pacers' Controller. McKee is in charge of day-to-day financial matters for the club.

Before joining the Pacers in 1976, McKee worked in public accounting for George S. Olive and Company four years, and in industrial accounting two years. He is a graduate of Ball State University ('70), with a Bachelor of Business Administration degree in accounting.

McKee, a Certified Public Accountant, enjoys skiing and spending time at the lake. Doug, his wife Kathy and son Justin (8½), reside in Carmel, Indiana.

DAVID PAITSON
Media & Community Relations Coordinator

Beginning his third season with the Indiana Pacers is David Paitson. As Community and Media Relations Coordinator, Paitson works with local, state and national media and puts together many of the club's community projects.

Prior to joining the Pacers, Paitson worked as Assistant to the General Manager for the El Paso Diablos, an AA Texas league baseball club. David also worked as a Sports Information Assistant at the University of Tulsa.

David is a 1982 graduate of Biscayne College (Miami, Florida) with a B.S. degree in Sports administration. Paitson, 24, is single and enjoys music and writing.

CINDY RUSS
Director of Promotions

A recent additon to the Indiana Pacers staff, Cindy Russ will assemble and direct all entertainment at Pacer games this season. Cindy is also responsible for the Pacemate/Pride - Professional Cheerleading and Dance Team. As Director of Promotions, her department is involved in many community service projects throughout the season as well.

The 1980 Indiana University graduate most recently worked as a Promotions and Merchandising Assistant for Melvin Simon and Associates. Cindy also worked as Director of Promotions and as Advertising and Publicity Assistant for Melvin Simon and Associates, Beverly Hills, California.

Cindy and her husband Ron enjoy music, movies and sports. They reside in Carmel, Indiana

PAUL WHITE
Public Relations Director

Paul White begins his first full season as the Public Relations Director for the Indiana Pacers. White is responsible for overseeing all activities of the department as well as acting as the link with the Pacers' in-house broadcasting and promotions divisions.

White joined the Pacers in May, 1983. Prior to his current assignment White worked in ticket, print and broadcast sales. He served as the host of Pacer Talk, the club's weekly television talk show and directed special club projects.

Orginally from New York City, White is a graduate of Indiana State University (B.S., Broadcasting, 1971; M.S., Communications, 1973). Paul enjoys music, tennis, films, trivia and good food.

GEORGE IRVINE, Head Coach

George Irvine, Vice President/Director of Basketball Operations during the 1983-84 season, begins his first season as Head Coach of the Indiana Pacers succeeding Jack McKinney. "I'm very excited about getting back out on the floor," said Irvine. "I was very happy doing the job I was doing, but for the previous seven years I had been preparing myself for the time that I would become a head coach in this league. This is a great franchise with strong ownership and management and a young team that will only get better." Irvine, 36, becomes only the fourth coach in Pacer history. He joined the Pacer organization prior to the 1980-81 season and spent three seasons as chief aide to Jack McKinney. As assistant coach he was in charge of pro and college scouting, coaching the squad in games and practices and providing major imput on the college draft.

Following staff cut backs prior to the 1982-83 season, Irvine became solely responsible for coordinating the Pacer draft efforts and put in countless hours on the road looking at top college talent. Irvine was instrumental in the selection of Pacer draftees Steve Stipanovich, Sidney Lowe, Leroy Combs and Jim Thomas—considered by many as the finest rookie group in the history of the franchise. With plans to build the franchise through the draft, management felt the need to have someone coordinate all basketball operations, including player acquisitions and scouting, so Irvine was promoted to Vice President/Director of Basketball Operations. He immediately implemented a plan of action by putting together a five-man scouting staff to seek out college talent and by acquiring New York's 1984 first round draft choice (used to select Vern Fleming) and Brook Steppe for veteran Billy Knight.

Originally a native of Seattle, Washington, Irvine is a 1970 graduate of the University of Washington. He completed his collegiate career as the Huskies fifth all-time scorer and career field goal percentage leader (.558). A third-round draft pick of the Virginia Squires in 1970, Irvine played five seasons as a guard/forward for the American Basketball Association club. He averaged 9.6 points in his 325 game pro career, hitting nearly 52 percent of his field goal attempts and 83 percent of his free throw shots. Nicknamed "Hawkeye" because of his deadly outside shooting touch, Irvine never shot below 50 percent in five ABA seasons. In the 1972 playoffs, Irvine set an ABA record by connecting on 56 of 85 field goals for the best shooting percentage (.659) in playoff history. Following the 1974-75 season Irvine was acquired by the Denver Nuggets along with the rights to David Thompson from Virginia for Mack Calvin, Mike Green and Jan van Breda Kolff. He played only three games for Denver due to a knee injury which cut short his pro career. He spent part of the 1975-76 season teaming with Al Albert (now of USA television network fame) as an analyst on Nugget radio broadcasts. Irvine began the 1976-77 season as a part-time assistant coach under Larry Brown at Denver. In mid season he was promoted to a full time assistant coaching position. He spent the next three seasons (1977-80) as Nugget assistant coach under Larry Brown and Donnie Walsh. Irvine, an avid golfer, resides in Carmel with his wife the former Joan Helfant. The couple have two sons: Toby, 8 and Jamie, 4½.

DONNIE WALSH, Assistant Coach

Donnie Walsh, a former NBA head coach and assistant with the Denver Nuggets, begins his first season as an assistant coach with the Pacers. In addition to assisting coach Irvine at games and practices, Walsh will be in charge of scouting NBA teams prior to games vs. Indiana. Walsh, who served as Denver's head coach from February, 1979 to February, 1981, compiled a 60-82 record with the Nuggets. Head Coach George Irvine served as Walsh's assistant during the 1978-79 and 1979-80 seasons. "Donnie Walsh has been a student of the game of basketball all his life," said Pacer President Bob Salyers. "He has been an assistant coach on the college and pro levels as well as having been a head coach in the NBA. This experience makes him a very valuable addition to our coaching staff." A native of New York City, Walsh got into the coaching profession following a highly successful college basketball career (1958-62) at the University of North Carolina. He played his first three years under Frank McGuire (who had coached the Tarheels to the 1957 NCAA title) and his senior season for then first-year Head Coach Dean Smith. Upon graduation, Walsh attended the University of North Carolina Law School (1962-65), receiving his degree in 1965. He had opportunities to join then-former-Vice President Nixon's New York law firm and the U.S. Justice Department's Honors Program, but he turned them down to take a graduate assistant coaching position under Smith at North Carolina. Walsh later joined McGuire, at South Carolina where he spent 12 seasons as an assistant coach.

Among his responsibilities was recruiting and he landed such players as Tom Boswell, Mike Dunleavy, Alex English, Kevin Joyce, Tom Owens, John Roche and Brian Winters. Called upon to fill in for McGuire on six occasions during his years at South Carolina, Walsh's teams emerged victorious each time. In addition, he coached the school's freshman team for a few seasons, leading them to a 52-20 record. After 12 years at South Carolina, Walsh decided to enter law. He passed the South Carolina Bar Exam in 1977 and was about to enter private practice when Denver Nuggets coach Larry Brown — a former teammate of Walsh's at North Carolina — convinced him to join the Nuggets staff as an assistant coach. After serving as an assistant coach for a year and a half, he was suddenly thrust into the head coaching spot following Brown's resignation in February 1979. As the team's interim coach, he guided the Nuggets to a 19-10 record during the final two months of the 1978-79 campaign. In addition to his coaching responsibilities, Walsh helped engineer trades which brought Alex English, Kiki Vandeweghe and T.R. Dunn to Denver. Walsh has spent the last years as an investment broker in Denver. He and his wife, Judy, have five children.

TOM NEWELL, Director of Player Personnel

Another new addition to the Pacer basketball staff this season is Tom Newell. As Director of Player Personnel, Newell is responsible for coordinating college scouting, player development and is involved with player acquisition and negotiating contracts. Newell, 36, grew up in the San Francisco Bay area and graduated from the University of Hawaii in 1971. He played and coached in Western Europe and Belgium. For the past five years he has been associated with the Golden State Warriors as a regional scout. He has also held numerous basketball camps over the past five years and has worked with present NBAers Rick Mahorn, Marc Iavoroni, Ralph Sampson, Roy Hinson and Frank Johnson.

This past summer he conducted a camp for Pacer veterans. Is a student of his father, super scout Pete Newell. "Being part of George's and Donnie's staff is a great opportunity," said Newell. "With the basketball mind of George finally getting an opportunity to put it to work will really hasten the progress and success of the Pacer organization in the NBA." Newell and his wife Elaine have two children, Ashleigh,5, and Christopher, 3.

DAVID CRAIG, Athletic Trainer/Team Administrator

One of the most knowledgeable trainers in professional sports, David Craig was selected as the Eastern Conference Trainer for the 1984 All-Star game in Denver. Craig begins his 15th season as the Indiana Pacers trainer. Craig's reputation is well known by players throughout the league. In 1982-83, Indiana had the fewest games missed because of injury of any team in the NBA. He was also responsible for setting up the training facilities at Market Square Arena, considered by most observers to be among the best in the country. In addition to his work with the Pacers, Craig is president and co-founder of Indianapolis Physical Therapy and Sports Medicine, Inc. A graduate of Purdue University (1970) Craig, his wife, Linda and children Jennifer (11) and Brian (8) reside in Acton, Indiana.

MEL DANIELS, Special Assistant

Returning for his second season as a special assistant is former Pacer great Mel Daniels. Daniels is responsible for working with the Pacer big men.

A two time Most Valuable Player in the American Basketball Association, Daniels led the Pacers to three ABA Titles during his six years with Indiana. Daniels averaged 19.5 points and 15.9 rebounds in six seasons. In 1970-71 he averaged an incredible 18.0 rebounds per game.

Daniels served as an assistant coach at Indiana State University from 1978-82 and was part of ISU's 33-1 NCAA Championship runner-up team in 1978-79. Former Sycamore star Larry Bird credits Daniels with preparing him for the NBA.

Mel and his wife Cecelia reside in Indianapolis.

JERRY GROSS, Radio & Television Play-By-Play Announcer

Beginning his first season as play-by-play announcer for both radio and television is Jerry Gross.

Gross comes to the Pacers with more than 20 years experience in announcing all major sports, both at the network and team play-by-play level. The native of Kingston, Rhode Island has among his play-by-play credits: St. Louis Hawks, St. Louis Cardinals (baseball), San Diego Rockets/Clippers, San Diego Padres, Golden State Warriors, NBA Game of the Week (ABC and CBS networks), ABC's Wide World of Sports, San Diego Chargers, NBA All-Star Game, and NCAA Basketball.

Additionally, Gross pioneered sports talk in Southern California beginning in 1967 with the "Jerry Gross Hotline Sports Talk Show." For ten years his show has been the #1 sports program in San Diego.

Owner of a sports production company in La Jolla, California, Gross has produced and marketed numerous events, including St. Louis Cardinals baseball, San Diego Padres pre and post game shows, San Diego Chargers, USC and San Diego State football.

Gross will handle lead radio play-by-play chores for the Pacers and will be the lead announcer on 20 telecasts scheduled for 1984-85. Gross and his wife Gretchen have two children (son Jeff, daughter Susan) and reside in Indianapolis and also have a home in La Jolla, California.

JERRY HARKNESS, Television Analyst

Jerry Harkness returns for his second season as one of the Indiana Pacers television analysts. This season, Jerry will share analyst's duties on the 20 scheduled telecasts with Dick Vitale. He will also do color commentary for some radio broadcasts.

Harkness averaged 7.1 points in two seasons with the Pacers. His most memorable moment was hitting an 88-foot three pointer at the final buzzer to beat the Dallas Chaparrals, 119-118 on November 13, 1967.

Harkness was a member of the 1963 NCAA Champions Loyola of Chicago. Loyola, led by Harkness, defeated the University of Cincinnati who were looking for an unprecedented third straight NCAA title. Harkness is out of Dewitt Clinton High School in New York City which has produced NBA players Dolph Schayes, Nate Archibald, Tom Henderson and Ricky Sobers.

Harkness is the morning sports anchor for WTLC Radio and the Director of New Horizon for the United Way. Jerry enjoys working with children and coached CYO basketball for ten years. He and his wife Judy have two children Gerald-15 and Julie-13.

DICK VITALE, Television Analyst

Joining Jerry Gross for ten Pacer television broadcasts is Dick Vitale.

For the past several seasons Vitale has provided color commentary on ESPN college and professional basketball broadcasts. He is also a columnist for Basketball Times and assistant publisher of "Dick Vitale's Basketball," a pre season annual. In 1983, he and NBC's Bob Costas co-hosted a weekly national radio show on college basketball which originated from KMOX radio in St. Louis.

Vitale was head coach at the University of Detroit and in four seasons compiled a winning percentage of .722. In 1977 he was named Athletic Director. In 1978 Vitale became head coach of the Detroit Pistons of the NBA.

He and his wife Lorraine have two daughters, and reside in West Bloomfield, Michigan.

JAN ODLE, Halftime Features

New to the Indiana Pacer broadcast team for the 1984-85 season is Jan Odle. Currently a student at the IUPUI School of Journalism. Jan will be doing special halftime features for the Pacers telecasts on WTTV this year.

As a talent and model, Jan has made many television commercials, training films and has performed in several stage productions. In 1980, she received an ENCORE nomination for BEST SUPPORTING ACTRESS IN A MUSICAL for her performance in "South Pacific."

Born in Indianapolis and raised on the east coast, Jan has been a permanent resident of Indianapolis for seven years and is very active in the community. She and her husband, Samuel, enjoy tennis and professional athletic events in their leisure time.

INDIANA PACERS RADIO NETWORK

The Indiana Pacers Radio Network, with WIBC (1070 AM) in Indianapolis serving as the flagship station, will broadcast all 82 regular season games with Jerry Gross as the play-by-play voice. Joining Gross as the regular analyst is Ken Double. The Pacers are pleased to have these other Indiana stations join the network:

KEN DOUBLE, Radio Analyst/Play-By-Play

Ken Double begins his first season as the Pacers' radio analyst and back-up play-by-play announcer after a successful career as a local sports anchor.

The popular Double joins the Pacers after three plus years at WRTV-6, Indianapolis. Ken came to channel 6 in 1980 after a short stint at WISH-TV. Ken began his channel 6 career as weekend sports anchor and reporter/producer. In June of 1983, Double became the lead sports anchor for the 6 and 11 p.m. newscasts on weekdays.

Prior to moving to Indianapolis, Double spent four years with WLFI-TV, Lafayette, Indiana as Sports Director. In addition to his anchor and production duties, Ken was the play-by-play voice for Purdue University football and basketball.

In addition to his analyst's duties, the Chicago, Illinois native will be lead play-by-play radio announcer for 20 games when Jerry Gross shifts to the television microphones. Double is an accomplished organist. Ken is single and resides in Indianapolis.

GREG PAPA, Radio Analyst/Play-By-Play

Joining the Pacer broadcast team in 1984-85 is Greg Papa. Greg will team with Ken Double on radio broadcasts when Jerry Gross moves to television.

A 1984 graduate of the University of Syracuse School of Broadcasting, Papa served as Sports Director for university station WAER during his senior year. Syracuse has turned out a number of outstanding broadcasters including Marv Albert, Bob Costas, Dick Stockton, Len Berman, Marty Glickman, Ted Koppel and Fred Silverman.

Single, Papa is a native of Buffalo, New York and resides in Indianapolis.

MARKET SQUARE ARENA

Market Square Arena, built by the city of Indianapolis and completed in 1974, is one of the premier sports and entertainment showplaces in the midwest. With repairs to the roof made over the summer MSA will sport a 'fresh look' for the 1984-85 NBA season.

The building was designed by Kennedy, Brown and Associates and constructed by Huber, Hunt and Nichols, Inc. Ground breaking ceremonies were held on October 20, 1971, and on September 15, 1974, the building was officially opened. The Pacers fell to San Antonio, 129-121, in double overtime in their first appearance in the building on October 18, 1974.

Five nights later, October 23, 1974, saw Indiana take its first victory in its "new" home as the Pacers dumped the Spirits of St. Louis, 122-107.

Market Square Arena highlights include the 1980 NCAA basketball semifinals and finals; the 1978 and 1979 NCAA basketball Mid-East Regionals; the annual Indiana state high school basketball and wrestling championships and Elvis Presley's last concert on June 26, 1977.

In the summer of 1982, MSA and the city of Indianapolis hosted the National Sports Festival's basketball and hockey finals, as well as speedskating and figure skating competition.

Site of countless sports and spectator events including circuses, rodeos, ice shows, major concerts, tennis and hockey, MSA has a seating capacity for concerts of 18,250; the same for boxing; 17,092 for basketball and 16,000 for hockey. All seats in the circular arena are free from posts and other obstructions of view.

The finest in dining is provided at Market Square Gardens restaurant, located on the seventh level of the west side of the building. Numerous concession stands also are available.

HEIGHT: 7'0"
WEIGHT: 245
COLLEGE: UCLA '85
HIGH SCHOOL: Kennedy High (Granada Hills, CA)
EXPERIENCE: Rookie
BIRTHDATE: May 27, 1963
DRAFTED: Second round by Indiana (29th overall) in the 1984 college draft.
ACQUIRED: As a second round selection in the 1984 college draft.

PRO:

A three year starter at UCLA, Gray surprised many by declaring for early entry into the NBA College Draft . . . selected in the second round (29th overall) by Indiana, Pacer Head Coach George Irvine was ecstatic that Gray was available. "He's somewhat of a gamble," said Irvine, "but I don't mind taking a chance on a 7-foot, 20 year old kid with his kind of potential. I think he has a great chance. He's strong, he rebounds well, he works very hard and he has a streak of meanness to him. I see a lot of similar traits between Stuart Gray and Bill Laimbeer."

1983-84:

Averaged 9.9 points and 7.9 rebounds last year as a junior . . . steadily improved in scoring, rebounding and shooting in each of his three seasons . . . may be better suited for the pro game, thus he decided to opt for the NBA . . . did lead the Bruins in rebounding and field goal percentage while ranking third in scoring . . . blocked 30 shots on the season as UCLA went 17-11 overall.

POSITION: Guard
HEIGHT: 6'2"
WEIGHT: 175
COLLEGE: Georgetown '84
HIGH SCHOOL: McKinley Tech (Washington, DC)
EXPERIENCE: Rookie
BIRTHDATE: August 20, 1962
DRAFTED: Fifth round by Indiana (94th overall) in 1984
ACQUIRED: As a fifth round draft selection in the 1984 college draft.

PRO:

Has earned his reputation as a tough, agressive, intense defensive specialist . . . "He's a great defensive player," said George Irvine. "We're looking for athletes and particulary defense because we want to pick up early. That starts with individual defense. You need good athletes to play good man-to-man defense on the ball. It is great to have people who can block shots but if you don't have good defense in the backcourt then you are always on your heels. His main strength is defense. He can be very disruptive and he'll make any camp interesting."

1983-84:

Captain of the Georgetown team that won the NCAA championship a year ago . . . had 66 steals to rank among national leaders . . . was a big part in the Georgetown defense which held opponents to the lowest field goal percentage in the country the past two seasons . . . Georgetown held opponents under 40.0 percent shooting in 1983-84 . . . injured prior to the NCAA Final Four (ankle) and saw limited action in semi-final game vs. Kentucky . . . was very effective in defending Kentucky guards that night . . . did not see any action in the final game triumph against Houston due to injury.

COLLEGE:

Captain of the Hoyas in both his junior and senior seasons, Smith was one of the top defensive players in the nation . . . his 68 steals as a junior was the fourth highest single season total in Georgetown history . . . led the team in assists as a junior (114), only six players have had higher single season totals . . . missed first half of his sophomore year with a broken foot . . . his intensity upon return to action sparked the Hoyas on their stretch run to the NCAA finals . . . played on the East team in the 1981 National Sports Festival.

PERSONAL:

Born August 20, 1962, Gene is a native of Washington, D.C. . . . his hobbies include reading and chess.

EXPERIENCE: Rookie
BIRTHDATE: February 27, 1961
ACQUIRED: Acquired along with Bill Garnett from the Dallas Mavericks for Indiana's first round pick in 1990.

PRO:

A first round draft selection of the Dallas Mavericks in last June's NBA draft, Stansbury was acquired just prior to the season opener, along with Bill Garnett, for Indiana's first round draft selection in 1990 . . . a fine outside shooter, he should see plenty of action at the number two guard position . . . "He's a quality athlete and scorer," said Tom Newell, Director of Player Personnel. "He runs the court well and is a very good defensive player. The fact that he was selected ahead of Vern Fleming means that once again the blessings of the draft have come our way. He will add depth to our quality backcourt."

COLLEGE:

Became Temple's first first-round draft choice since Guy Rodgers in 1958 . . . set an NCAA record as a junior when he averaged 40.4 minutes, sitting out only seven minutes all year as Temple went 14-15 and Stansbury averaged 24.6 ppg . . . as a senior, was honorable mention All-American leading Temple to a 26-5 record . . . the Owls knocked off St. John's in the NCAA tourney (Stansbury hit game-winner at the horn) before falling to Sam Perkins and North Carolina 77-66 despite 26 from Stansbury . . . as a senior was Player-of-the Year in the Atlantic 10 . . . named to the Aloha Classic All-Tourney team . . . 43-inch vertical jumper . . . took part in Pan Am and Olympic trials, but was cut both times . . . Temple's all-time leading scorer . . . career high was conference record 39 vs. Massachusetts in '83.

PERSONAL:

Says he's the first Delaware native ever to make the NBA . . . majored in marketing and distributive education . . . his mother, who lives in L.A. has never seen Terence play (he'll take care of that on Indiana's first trip west) . . . spends much of his free time working with kids . . . tennis, racquetball, and fishing are among hobbies . . . says Michael Jordan and Rod Foster are the two toughest players he's defended . . . played sophomore year of high school in L.A. before moving back to Delaware . . . Stansbury says, "I'm not here to be famous. My strengths are in the offensive department, but I can play "D". It's in my heart." . . . given name is Terence R. Stansbury.

3. Each club plays the eleven clubs of the Eastern Conference twice.

The Mississippi River now is the dividing line separating the Eastern and Western conferences.

In order to determine which teams would play uneven amounts of games against teams within their conference, the schedule was prepared by assigning teams within a division numbers one through five or one through six. Blind draws were held to assign a team the schedule which corresponds to the number it selected.

NBA PLAYOFF STRUCTURE

The following is the NBA playoff format and tie-breaking procedure for the 1984-85 NBA season:

1. Sixteen teams shall qualify for the playoffs. There shall be eight teams from each conference, consisting of the two division champions and the six other teams in each conference with the best winning percentage during the regular season.

2. The first round of the playoffs shall be a best-of-five series (instead of best-of-three) with all succeeding rounds, including the NBA World Championship Series, being best-of-seven. All teams will participate in the first round; byes that formerly went to division winners have been eliminated.

Following are the playoff pairings:

Note: Team 1 in each conference is the division winner with the better record. Team 2 is the other division winner and Teams 3-8 are ranked according to their regular-season winning percentage.

PLAYOFF TIE-BREAKING PROCEDURE

In order to break a two-team tie for playoff positions, the following criteria will be used:

a) Results of games against each other
b) Better winning percentage within own conference
c) Better winning percentage within own division (only if tied teams are in same division)
d) Better winning percentage against playoff opponents in own conference
e) Point differential in games against each other
f) Better point differential between offense and defense

A multiple-team tie will be broken in the following manner:

a) Best cumulative winning percentage in total games involving all teams tied
b) Best winning percentage within own conference
c) Best winning percentage within own division (only if tied teams are in same division)
d) Best winning percentage against playoff opponents in own conference
e) Best point differential between offense and defense

If a multiple-team tie is reduced to a two-team tie at any point using the above criteria, the two-team tie will be resolved in accordance with the existing two-team tie-breaking procedure.

1983-84 IN REVIEW

DATES OF INTEREST

September 30, 1983 — Signed veteran free agent guard Butch Carter to a multi-year contract.

October 3, 1983 — Signed free agent Jerry Sichting.

October 4, 1983 — Signed rookie center Steve Stipanovich, the second pick in the 1983 NBA draft, to a multi-year contract.

October 7, 1983 — Acquired Hank McDowell from the Portland Trail Blazers for a third round pick in 1986.

October 29, 1983 — George Johnson's three-point basket with seconds left in regulation sends Indiana into overtime with the Philadelphia 76ers on Opening Night. . . The Toast of the Town celebration fizzles, however, as the record crowd of 17,096 watch the defending world champions dominate the overtime for a 124-112 win.

November 1, 1983 — Billed the Stipo-Sampson matchup, for the league's top two rookies, Butch Carter steals the show by pouring in 42 points, equaling a career high, as Indiana defeats Houston, 116-108.

November 23, 1983 — Indiana records its second sell out of the season as the popular musical groups, the Temptations and the Four Tops, perform following the Pacers heart breaking 115-113 loss to Detroit.

December 22, 1983 — Kevin McKenna's 21 points help lead Indiana to a 133-132 victory at Denver. The win breaks a club record 28 game road losing streak for Indiana.

January 6, 1984 — Behind Clark Kellogg's 30 point effort Indiana defeats Phoenix 104-88 for its fifth straight win at MSA.

January 10, 1984 — Butch Carter (knee contusion) is placed on the injured reserve list.

January 12, 1984 — Indiana signs Tracy Jackson to a 10 day contract. Jackson is released on January 19.

January 21, 1984 — Indiana draws 8,844 fans to MSA for the Dallas Mavericks to top the total home attendance for 1982-83 after only 20 games.

February 18, 1984 — Herb Williams (ankle) is placed on the injured reserve list. The Pacers fill the roster by signing Bruce Kuczenski to a 10 day contract. Kuczenski is released on March 9.

March 10, 1984 — Clark Kellogg scores 25 points and Brook Steppe adds a career high 21 points as Indiana whips the Lakers 126-114 for its first win ever in Los Angeles.

March 20, 1984 — Butch Carter sets an NBA record by scoring 14 points in overtime as Indiana defeats Boston 123-121.

April 11, 1984 — Butch Carter hits 16 of 30 field goals (including 1-2, 3 pts) and 9 of 12 free throws for 42 points, but Indiana loses to Atlanta, 114-111.

April 13, 1984 — Indiana closes out the home schedule in high spirits as Clark Kellogg pours in 35 points to lead the Pacers to a 119-115 victory over Washington. Following the game the sellout crowd of 16,665 is treated to a concert by "America's Greatest Rock & Roll Band", the Beach Boys.

April 25, 1984 — Jack McKinney is dismissed as Head Coach of the Indiana Pacers.

May 29, 1984 — George Irvine, Vice President of Basketball Operations during the 1983-84 season, is named the fourth coach of the Indiana Pacers.

June 12, 1984 — Donnie Walsh, former head coach and assistant coach at Denver, is named as assistant coach.

June 18, 1984 — The Indiana Pacers select Vern Fleming of Georgia in the first round of the annual NBA college draft.

August 10, 1984 — Indiana signs second round selection Stuart Gray and free agent Jeff Lamp.

August 21, 1984 — Indiana signs second round pick Devin Durrant.

August 28, 1984 — Indiana signs its first round pick, Vern Fleming, a member of the gold medal winning U.S. Olympic team, to a multi-year contract.

September 14, 1984 — Indiana acquires Leo Rautins, the 17th player selected in the 1983 college draft, from the Philadelphia 76ers for future considerations.

September 18, 1984 — Indiana sends veteran forward Kevin McKenna to the Houston Rockets for future considerations.

THE ATTENDANCE SURGE

The 1983-84 season may be best remembered from an entertainment standpoint. Various promotions helped the Indiana Pacers increase attendance by 113 percent, the most by an NBA team last year. Indiana averaged 10,273 fans in 1983-84, up from 4,768 in 1982-83. The Pacers sold out four games last year including an all-time record crowd on opening night of 17,096.

The spirit was high throughout the year, with 15 games drawing 10,000 or more and nine crowds that were larger than the largest crowd of 1982-83. The season ended on a positive note with a sellout on closing night.

The following is a review of 1983-84 promotions which helped make 1983-84 such a success:

TOAST OF THE TOWN — Opening Night, Philadelphia vs. Indiana, (10/29). There was a party for season ticket holders, a laser light show, a salute to the NBA and over 3,000 fans were dressed in tuxedos. A - 17,096 (Sell Out)

RALPH WHO? — Houston vs. Indiana (11/1). Three thousand Ralph Who? buttons were distributed to fans and any-one named Ralph was admitted for free. Billed as the first meeting between the NBA's top two rookies Ralph Sampson of Houston and Steve Stipanovich of Indiana. More than two hundred Ralphs showed up. A - 14,629

MOTOWN NIGHT — Detroit vs. Indiana, (11/23). Popular musical groups the Temptations and the Four Tops performed immediately following the game. A - 16,577 (Sell out)

DOWNTOWN HOLIDAY PARTY — Milwaukee vs. Indiana, (12/27). A businessperson special with an early Tuesday afternoon starting time of 4:30 p.m. Ten thousand blue & yellow derbies were given to fans, the Toy Soldiers performed at halftime and 17 downtown restaurants offered fans a special menu item or price reduction. A - 12,074

NEW YEAR'S PROMOTION — Atlanta vs. Indiana, (1/2). In an effort to compete with college football bowl day several special ticket plans were offered. They included discounts for those who wore football helmets or had an orange bowl and free admittance for Nebraska graduates, former Heisman trophy winners, former presidents and Indian Chiefs. A- 6,641

INDIANAPOLIS SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA — Dallas vs. Indiana, (1/21). The Indianapolis Symphony Orchestra performed before the game and at halftime. It was the first time that a symphony had appeared at a NBA game. A - 8,844

GREAT PACER SHOOTOUT — San Diego vs. Indiana, (1/30-31). Anyone purchasing a ticket for the game vs. the Clippers could go to Market Square Arena and shoot seven free throws and win a ticket of equal value to the Clippers game for each one made. The winner of the two days of shootouts met in a special basketball game at halftime of the San Diego game with the winner receiving a trip for two to San Diego. A - 10,015.

DR. BOP & THE HEADLINERS — Cleveland vs. Indiana, (2/11). Dubbed the "greatest little bar band in the world", Dr. Bop and the Headliners played music from the 1950's and 1960's following the game. A - 10,616

DR. TAVEL MEETS DR. J — Philadelphia vs. Indiana, (3/13). The first 5,000 fans received funny noses and glasses and cigars. A - 14,580

BILL COSBY IN CONCERT — New Jersey vs. Indiana, (3/17). The world famous comedian Bill Cosby performed following Indiana's game with the Nets. A - 14,006.

INDIANAPOLIS BALLET THEATRE — Boston vs. Indiana, (3/20). In another NBA first the Indianapolis Ballet Theatre performed at halftime of the Celtics game. A - 16,969 (s/o)

ALL AMERICAN HOT DOG NIGHT — Cleveland vs. Indiana, (3/30). Armour Food Company gave away 10,000 hot dogs, anyone named Frank was admitted free and anyone wearing a hot dog costume was admitted free (four showed up). Special discounts were offered for residents of Frankfort, Indiana; anyone with mustard on his tie and those who presented an Armour hot dog package. Following the game there was a hot dog eating contest and an autograph session with the Pacer players. A - 8,776

BEACH BOYS IN CONCERT — Washington vs. Indiana, (4/13). The Indiana Pacers closed out the 1983-84 season with a post game concert by "America's greatest rock and roll band", the Beach Boys. A - 16,665 (Sell out)

LONGEST SHOT IN PRO BASKETBALL HISTORY

Jerry Harkness of the Indiana Pacers, played only 81 games in the ABA but in one of them he left a mark that has stood through the past seventeen years — the longest shot in pro basketball history.

It came during a regular season game in Dallas on November 13, 1967, the first year of the ABA.

Dallas had scored a basket with just seconds remaining to go ahead by two points when Harkness, who had entered the game for INDIANA only a few minutes earlier for injured Freddie Lewis, took an in-bounds pass with two seconds to go.

"I was near the baseline and the sideline and I just heaved the ball with all I had the length of the court," he recalls. "The buzzer went off, and then it hit the backboard and went right in the basket.

"Everyone was stunned. The fans stopped screaming and we all thought the game was going into overtime. It must have been five seconds before we realized that the basket was a three-point goal and that we had won."

The distance? 88 feet!
